ANOTHER NEW YEAR; still, a repeat of the past,
Resolutions made, but none of them last.

“I’m going to do better; I’m going to be strong;
Last year I failed ‘cause the year was too long.”

This is the truth; no more inventions,
‘Cause the road to hell is paved with good intentions.

Why do we, in all sincerity, make promises, or resolutions, or plans, (schemes?) and not keep them; or modify them so the burden is lighter? Perhaps it is because we do not know our own nature. But God does, and He addresses the problem in Jeremiah 17:9, where He says, “The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked; who can know it?”

There is so much deceit in the world we become accustomed to it to the point that we deceive ourselves many times. However, there is a way to combat such deceit so our resolutions, plans, and promises do not turn out to be schemes.

To be truthful about everything in life, we must turn to the God of the universe because He already knows: “I, the LORD, search the heart, I test the conscience, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings” (Jeremiah 17:10).

God has a plan for this old world and a plan for each of us, if we care to find out what that plan is. If we go to the Bible and read to find His will for our lives, He will reveal His will to us, for He said, “For I know the thoughts that I think toward you,” saith the Lord, “Thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end. Then shall ye call upon Me, and ye shall go and pray unto Me, and I will hearken unto you. And ye shall seek Me, and find Me, when ye shall search for Me with all your heart” (Jeremiah 29:11-13).

Notice that God does not want any halfhearted attempt to discover who He is and how we must best serve and worship Him. We must seek Him; that is, to search for Him with all our heart. Much of the time we put our heart and soul into a career or other things in life, only to have our interests change, resources dry up, the career dry up (Kodak?), or we get too old to participate in such endeavors; and these are only temporal things. If we seek God first, we are investing in things eternal, which things will never run out because God is forever.

In Matthew 6:25-34 Jesus addresses the cure for care about the world’s goods, and in verses 32-33 He nails it right down to the basics: “For after all these things do the Gentiles seek. For your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you.”

Read the Bible daily, pray often to thank God for His presence, and worship Him in the name of Jesus Christ. What a wonderful way to begin the new year of 2016, walking through life with the God who created you, the Son who redeemed you, and the Holy Spirit who dwells within you. Rejoice ever more!

Have a blessed New Year. Pastor Jim

2 Corinthians 12:9-10, NKJV

And God said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for My strength is made perfect in weakness." Therefore most gladly I will rather boast in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in needs, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ's sake. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

I thank You Lord for last year
And the infirmities that came,
That makes me more aware of You
And Jesus' precious name.
Before we get into next year
I thank You ahead of time,
For all the healing power
That You have all in line.
May I remember the sacrifice
When Jesus saved my soul;
Even though it's difficult
Now my life is whole.

I ask You Lord for courage
To face this coming year,
So I don't miss the blessing
Of Jesus being near.
Help me rejoice in suffering
And in Your blessings too;
Help me to be Spirit led
That I may honor You.

In Jesus Name, Amen
Pastor Jim

In and Around the Community

On July 18, 2011 I was diagnosed with Acute Myeloid Leukemia, with a very poor prognosis. November 14, 2015 was the 4-year anniversary for my first stem cell transplant. June 3, 2016 will be the 2-year anniversary of the second stem cell transplant. Beverly and I wanted to thank everyone in the Congregation for your continued prayers and good wishes. We are convinced that the power of prayer has been the primary reason for my progress in fighting this horrible form of Cancer. I am by no means cured, but the prognosis is much better than it originally was.

Take care, God Bless and enjoy this Christmas Holiday Season....keep the prayers coming....Team Olney.

The youth group would like to thank the Life Ladies for their Christmas cards and gifts. They were much appreciated. The youth group and other church members also went Christmas caroling to spread joy to our neighbors. In addition, the youth group went to Rochester for a Christmas program. We hope you had a great time!

The beloved Kendall High School nurse, Libby Jurs, lost her battle with cancer on December 12th. She was a strong, loving, and Godly woman who will be missed by all who knew her. Please keep the family in your prayers.

We were pleased to see Ann White visiting us last month. She shared that she had come to our church exactly 30 years ago, and even though she has moved, she still feels as though this church is her home. We love having you Ann!

Special thanks go out to Todd Rath, Brad Miller, and Dan Cater for filling in for Pastor Jim while he was on vacation. Not many churches can count on their own to provide messages while the pastor is away. All three did a fantastic job!

On behalf of the Kendall Food Cupboard, Julia Ingraham expressed a big thank you for all who gave food and monetary donations. They were able to pack around 60 good boxes along with multiple gifts for families during the Christmas season. Great job!

This past month, the Trustee's acknowledged and gave thank you cards to all those who work hard to make our church run smoothly. Your work is greatly appreciated!

John Cook asks for continued prayers for two people in his life that are affected by cancer.

Please keep the Kuhn family in your prayers as they lost a loving mother and grandmother on Christmas Eve.

Alexis Bartel has suffered another seizure this past month. The family is looking into seeing a different neurologist to try to determine the cause. Please keep Alexis in your thoughts.

John Curtis' uncle, Neil Curtis, passed away on December 22nd. There will not be any services as to the family's wishes. Please keep the family in your prayers.

Mary Callari announced a prayer request and a praise item for her friend Tina. Tina, who has had numerous strokes before, had a major stroke just before the holidays. Thankfully, she was able to have a stint put in and could Facetime with her three children as they opened gifts on Christmas morning. Please continue to pray for her healing!

Please keep the Bartolucci family in your prayers. Tony Bartolucci and his 14-year-old daughter, Gianna, were hit, head on, by a drunk driver on Christmas Eve. Thanks to neighbors nearby, both were pulled from their burning vehicle. The both remain in guarded condition at this point. Tony is the pastor at Clarkson Community Church and Gianna goes to school with Matthew Cook. Our prayers are with the family.

Please pray for David Purvee's father-in-law, Fred Crisler. He had fallen and injured his back and neck. He had an 8 hour surgery, and when he was coming out of the anesthesia, he had a seizure and a CAT scan showed bleeding in the brain, which may have been caused by the fall. The family was told that there was a 5% chance of him coming out of the coma. They were given two choices: to remove the tubes and go to comfort care or put him in a nursing home and live on machines. However, on the 23rd, he woke up enough to let nurses know he was in pain and remained awake for several hours! The respirator has been removed, he was able to recognize and talk to family members. He still has a long road to recovery, but it's definitely a miracle!

The church service on December 20th, was filled with music as the choir sang four anthems and the congregation participated in a hymn sing. It was wonderful to hear all of the Christmas music!

We continue to remember in prayer: the Ashberry family, Jim Bliss, Fred & Wilma Conradt, Chap & Jan Fabry, Helen Mattern, RoseMary Mintz, Ralph Olney, Ed & Joan Purvee, Eleanor Reynolds, Larry & Sandy Richardson, Pastor Jim, and the youth group. Cards, notes, and visits are always welcome.
