PSALM 100

A Psalm Of Thanksgiving

Make a joyful shout to the LORD, all you lands!

Serve the LORD with gladness;

Come before His presence with singing.

Know that the LORD, He is God;

It is He who made us, and not we ourselves;

We are His people and the sheep of His pasture.

Enter into His gates with thanksgiving,

And into His courts with praise.

Be thankful to Him, and bless His name.

For the LORD is good;

His mercy is everlasting,

And His truth endures to all generations.

Since the beginning of history God has made Himself known to humanity. By the order of creation we see that God is in control of what He created, and from beginning to end He has a plan. Throughout the Book of Psalms there is much praise to God for all He has done to deliver His people from hardship and oppression. Actually, too much to address in a paper of this scope.

However, in Psalm 100, the writer is praising God just because He is God and that He has revealed Himself to mankind. We are God's because He created us to be His people. He created us to offer praise and thanksgiving to Him, because He is God and He deserves our highest adoration and our deepest devotion regardless of any and all earthly circumstances! And that is what Psalm 100 is all about.

There are many people who call themselves Christians who do not offer God praise and thanksgiving because they either take God's goodness for granted or they think their circumstances do not merit praise. Perhaps their circumstances do not merit praise but God merits praise through those circumstances!

Not only is the above true but God takes notice of those who speak well of Him: In Malachi 3:16-18 the Bible says, Then those who feared the LORD spoke to one another, and the LORD listened and heard them; so a book of remembrance was written before Him for those who fear the LORD and who meditate on His name.

“They shall be Mine,” says the LORD of hosts, “On the day that I make them My jewels. And I will spare them as a man spares his own son who serves him.”

Then you shall again discern between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve Him.

I thank God for all those who serve Him with a joy-filled heart and meditate on His name; you are His jewels and my brothers and sisters in Christ; Amen!

Serving Christ and the Community, Pastor Jim

Building insurance, gas, electric, postage and Workman's Comp/Disability are expected to increase next year. We saved money by changing telephone service and cutting a few line items. Ralph predicts a 1.9% increase in the budget over last year. Gary made a motion to accept, Sandy seconded, accepted.

It would cost several thousand dollars to replace the flooring the McQueen Hall. Chap Fabry will contact the manufacturer and see if there is any way to remove the yellowing on the floor. Dan has tried several different kinds of cleaner with no success.

Tom purchased a sump pump and he and Tony installed it.

Due to miscommunication Andrew Cook was not paid for August 20th. He played at the Community Service and it was agreed that he should be paid.

THE OUTWORKING OF THE BEATITUDES AT MORTON BAPTIST CHURCH, FROM MATTHEW CHAPTER FIVE

- 1) When Jesus saw the people in disarray, He went to Troutburg, and after He sat down, the Mortonites came to Him.
- 2) Then He began to speak, and taught us, saying:
- 3) Blessed are the poor in spirit; you have recognized your spiritual poverty.
- 4) Blessed are you that mourn; your hearts have been touched by other people's grief.
- 5) Blessed are the meek; you understand the value of people.
- 6) Blessed are you that do hunger and thirst after righteousness; you have been using yourselves up for other people.
- 7) Blessed are the merciful; you share what God has given you.
- 8) Blessed are the pure in heart; you have no ulterior motives.
- 9) Blessed are the peacemakers; you are a very rare breed.
- 10) Blessed are you who are persecuted for righteousness sake; Jesus Christ has become real to you.
- 11) Blessed are you , when people revile you, and persecute you, and say all manner of evil against you falsely for the sake of Jesus Christ; your life has made Jesus Christ real to other people.
- 12) Rejoice, and be exceedingly glad; for you have just learned how to worship God, like the prophets and apostles of old.
- 13) In so doing you are a disciple of Christ; the salt of the earth and the light of the world.

Pastor Jim

Sow the Seed - See the Harvest

The story is told of two boys who were walking through a field and found some corn seeds scattered across the ground. They each took one of the seeds home and planted it.

When the first boy didn't see a tiny sprout after the second day, he dug up the seed to see if it had sprouted. Each day he dug up the seed and replanted it, but the corn would not grow. The seed had germinated; yet the boy had not allowed it to maintain contact with the soil, take root, and obtain nutrients. So, it died.

The second boy planted his seed and left it alone. He imagined a tall stalk of corn where he had planted the seed. He waited patiently as rains came and sunshine bathed the ground with warmth. In ten days, a small sprout had broken through the ground, its curled leaves reaching toward the sky.

Achieving any desire, whether large or small, begins with a seed sown in the mind. That seed is the vision of its fulfillment. It also requires the commitment to allow the vision to grow--the faith in God to do His part through storm, rain, and sunshine.

Commitment in daily life allows life's storms to strengthen resolve. Resolve allows us to nurture a new dream, improve an existing dream, or even begin over if necessary. Faith allows acceptance of any circumstance as God's blessing for ultimate growth.

A seed sown must be nourished with faith and belief. When you hold a picture of the final creation in your mind, you hold and maintain faith. You honor God's desire to create something wonderful, and you honor His choice of your hands to help do the job.

How often do we plant the seed of a beautiful dream in the fertile soil of our minds, and then dig it up? What could you achieve if you allowed your seed to grow, continuing to focus your spiritual eyes on the harvest?

If it were not possible for you to achieve a dream, God would not have placed it in your heart and mind. Sow your seed, allow it to grow, and see an abundant harvest.
