Maundy Thursday? Good Friday?

We often use words in the life of the church that we assume folks understand. We preachers love to use these words thinking everyone knows what we are talking about when they may not. Some of the words that we use to describe events or observances have come to us from languages other than English or may be a corruption of the original word, which adds to any confusion. Holy Week (the week between Psalm Sunday and Easter Sunday) gives us two of these words: Maundy Thursday and Good Friday.

Maundy Thursday is an interesting title for the Thursday in Holy Week when we remember our Lord's Last Supper with his disciples. Many churches have a communion service that evening as will we this year (more on this later). The word Maundy comes from the Old French word, maunde, which is from the earlier use in Latin of mandatum novum, which means a "new commandment". In John 13:34, we read when Jesus was celebrating his Last Supper with his disciples, and before the later events of that terrible night and following day Jesus says, "I give you a new commandment, that you love one another, just as I have loved you, you also should love one another." Later that evening and into the next day, we see the true meaning and the depth of His love and God's love for us.

Good Friday is more of a challenge for us. Over the years, people have asked me and many other preachers the obvious question: why do we call it Good Friday when it is such a terrible day? There are two possible explanations, one theological and the other a word issue.

In 1 Corinthians 15:3, Paul writes that it is of first importance that Christ died for our sins in according to scriptures. We remember that Jesus was willing to pay the ultimate price for our sins by his death. Paul in Romans 6:5 writes, "For we have been united with him in a death like his (baptism), we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his." So, if there is meaning in the word "good", it is the good news of forgiveness, new life, and a future with God in eternity.

Of course, any look at other languages, like German, their word is Karfreitag meaning "Sorrowful Friday." Some also make the case that what we call Good Friday has changed over the years from an older title, God's Friday.

Hopefully we have made things a bit clearer and didn't add any confusion. What matters is that we know in our heads and our hearts the depth of God's love and hope for us in Christ. And knowing that makes Easter or as it is also called, Resurrection Day, a day to truly celebrate.

TRUSTEE MEETING 3-13-19

In attendance: Gary House, Tom Ingraham, Frank Hoffman, Tony Callari, Dan Cater, Rev. Walter Steenson, Marilyn Kundrata

The Treasurer's Report was reviewed. $5,000 was transferred to the Capital Fund, $1,000 was transferred to the Memorial Fund. Taxes were filed. Frank made a motion to accept. Tony seconded.

Carpet and stair treads were installed at the back entrance.

Gary and Carolyn House purchased blinds for MacQueen Hall. Dan will help install them.

The organ is in need of repair. Tony will get a quote.

Carolyn House purchased cards with a Christian symbol on them to give as gifts for birthdays and anniversaries. Thank you, Carolyn for your thoughtfulness and generosity!

The Pastoral Relations Committee members will be Brad Miller, John Cook and Carol Duerr.

The Pulpit Committee will be co-chaired by Brad Miller and Julia Ingraham; Ralph Olney will stay on as a consultant.

We received a quote of $4,700 to repair the cracks in the ceiling of the office. There is also a crack in the wall of the sanctuary. The cracks will be reassessed when the weather warms.

There is water leaking into the back hallway. Possibly a roof leak at the flashing.

The garbage cans are not always put out on garbage day. Gary will contact the garbage company and see if they will pick up the cans where they are stored.

Lisa Rowley and the Deacons are looking into purchasing new hymnals. Eleanor Reynolds bequeathed $1,000 to the church. Her family would like the money to be used for the purchase of hymnals.

We need a wireless microphone to use during "Prayers and Concerns" so everyone can hear the prayer requests.

All MacQueen Hall reservations will be posted in the newsletter from now on so everyone knows when the hall is in use.

The meeting was closed with prayer at 8:10 pm. The next meeting will be April 17th at 7:30 pm.
